SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION ACT ON HOSPITAL QUESTION

The board of supervisors met in regular sesion Monday, May 27. at 10 a. m., all the members being present with the exception of Chairman C. V. Thompson.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Francis, Supervisor Brown was appointed chairman pro tem.

The minutes of the regular meetings of May 6 and 13th and the adjourned meetings of May 18, 20, 21 23, 24 and 25 were read and approved.

The Social Service Commission and a large delegation of representative women from all parts of the county appeared before the board to take up the matter of the building of a new county hospital. Mrs. H. S. Dana, president, presented and read a set of resolutions adopted by that body on May 20, requesting that some definite action be taken at once relative to a new county hospital and asking the supervisors to appoint a committee, composed of three members of the board, three members from the Social Service Commission and a representative from the State Board of Charities, to report on suggested sites, plans and estimates of cost for the abive proposed institution.

Following the reading of the resolutions, Mrs. Dana addressed the board and spoke about the urgent needs of the new hospital, dwelling upon the constructive work done by the social service commission since its organization several yeads ago and how difficult it would be to continue this work under the present conditions. "The people want the hospital," declared Mrs Dana, "and are anxious to vote on the proposition". She argued that the cost of construction would be just as great years following the war as it would be at the presetn time and while the war is in progress.

Dr. Ethel Waters of the State Board of Health, who was present at the meeting stated that she was satisfied that there would be no difficulty in securing the sanction of the Federal Government to spend the county money. for a new hospital.

Supervisor MacBain spoke and explained that while he was opposed to a bond issue to raise the necessary funds, if the people wanted it, he would vote for it.

"There is not a member of the present board of supervisors who is not in favor of a new hospital," declared Supervisor MacBain, "but the question that confronts us is, whether this is the time to build it."

He told of an address made before the supervisors' convention in Los Angeles last week in which the speaker said that the action of every board of supervisors in the State was being watched by the Federal Government relative to the expenditure of money and especially through the issuance of bonds.

Supervisor Francis said he was fully in acord with the wishes of the ladies present and that he favored putting the question up to the people as to whether they wanted the new hospital or not.

Supervisor Hickey said he was with the other members of the board and that the only matter to be considered was that of finances. "We must win the war," he declared, "and devote our time, energies and money to that end."

"But we must save the babies first," replied Mrs. Dana.

Supervisor MacBain again addressed the board and said that he would like to see a suitable site selected and then paid for by direct taxation after August. The hospital, he suggested, could then be built later in the same

Lieutenant Adams saw two years' service with the famous Strathcona Horse. One sister has been in France since the war broke out in 1914. For over a year the family have not heard anything from her, so the Adams love the Kaiser. Another sister is head of the Red Cross Nurses in Toronto, Canada. Adams is a staunch Canadian and says that one good which will result from this war will be the cementing of a friendship between United States and Canada which will never be severed.

"If the people of the United States," said Adams, "could see the thousands of armless and legless heroes wheeled in chairs and carried in baskets, and the hospitals for invalidated Canadians, millions would volunteer for immediate service to wipe out Kaiserism.

In no country has this war been brought closer to home as in Canada. Of a population of 9,000,000, 50,000 were in the trenches in France. One third have been killed, another third injured or maimed for life. 250,000 are in training at various points in Canada to go across to France. It is said upon authority that not one family of the English-speaking people of the Dominion but has one vacant chair.

When the war is brought closer home to the people of the United States, the Pro-Germans here will be lucky to even receive the courtesy of a trial."

FATHER HANNIGAN IS TRANSFERRED TO OCEAN VIEW PARISH

The announcement during the week that Father Jerome B. Hannigan, the popular pastor of the Church of the Nativity, Menlo Park, for the past six years, was to leave, was received with considerable surprise and much regret by the people of Menlo Park.

Father Hannigan is held in high esteem not only among his parishioners but among non-Catholics as well for his splendid work and achievements during his residence here. He has labored diligently for the upbuilding of the community both spiritually and civically and has accomplished much. No task was too great or sacrifice too severe for him when there was work to be done to benefit his church or locality. No detail was omitted in giving his parishioners the best attention and finest service. As an organizer he has few equals and as a pulpit orator he has no superior in the diocese. Father Hannigan is universally liked and admired and on all sides may be heard sincere regrets expressed at his departure. All keenly feel the loss the community sustains in his leaving. His devotion to his sacred calling, his prompt assistance to those in distress and his interest in little children, call for the greatest admiration for him.

The locating of Camp Fremont at Menlo Park has entailed considerable work on the pastor and this with his other arduous tasks has been too much of a burden. He found that he had to give up the work in order to spare his health.

Father Hannigan has been assigned to St. Michael's parish at Ocean View, San Francisco. He will leave in about two weeks to assume charge of the parish.

Father W. P. Sullivan of St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco, has been appointed Father Hannigan's successor. Father Sullivan is well-knewn in Menlo Park having spent a vacation of a year here some years ago. He is a young man of energy and abilty. We bespeak success for him in his new duties.

WIN THE WAR FIRST

No one doubts the sincerity of the good women of San Mateo county. They are doing much for humanity; are putting for th their best efforts to help win the war, but we think they are wrong in urging the board of supervisors to build a county hospital at this time. Let us win the war first before we start any public improvements. Spend the money that would go to the hospital in buying material and ships to help save the lives of our boys who are at the front ready to make the supreme sacrifice. Their safety should be our only thought at this time. They should receive all our consideration. When the boys come back, and the flow of mother's tears are stopped it will be time to think of the county hospital. Until then no effort should be made by the supervisors along the lines suggested by the good ladies of the county. It would be extremely unpatriotic at this time for the board to give the matter any consideration whatever. The few inmates at the hospital can easily get along for a while with present conditions which are no worse than they have been for the past twenty years. The thousands of our boys at the front need infinitely more consideration; by all means give it to them.

GERMAN ATROCITIES

What Jack Schoepf of Santa Barbara says about German atrocities will be accepted by his friends here as the absolute truth, says a Santa Barbara newspaper; and this is his statement concerning one incident which he saw with his own eyes:

"Where we last worked I saw a half-crazy woman whose tongue had been cut out by the Huns. Her husband, son and brother had been killed in the first three days of the war, and her daughter carried off prisoner. It was too much; her mind gave way. If those indifferent Americans could see and hear what we do, they might waken up."

"Wake up, America!" is the plea of the loyal American boys in France. "Put down the pacifist, the pro-German and the propagandist," is their further message.

REPORT OF SESSION OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

way. He stated that he doubted if the county would be able to dispose of the bonds even in the event of the carrying of the election.

Chairman pro tem Brown explained to the ladies present that the entire board was acting as a committee to look up suitable sites for the new hospital.

"The hospital will be built you can rest assured on that point," he said. "As the other members of the board explained, it is simply a question of finances. The county money, as you know, is apportioned each year for certain purposes and can be used only for those purposes.

Mrs. Dana said that the commission was willing to abide by the decision of the board as to the best method of raising the necessary funds to construct the hospital, but would like to have the supervisors appoint their committee at once to act with the commission, as requested in the resolutions presented and read at the beginning of the meeting.

Supervisor MacBain explained that it would be hardly proper to take any action toward appointing a committee on such a highly important matter without Chairman Thompson being present and suggested that the naming of the committee be deferred until the next meeting on June 3rd. Mrs. Dana said this would be agreeable to the commission and it was so ordered.

During the discusion in the hospital matter, Mrs. F. N. Woods of Woodside brought up the question of child welfare work and spoke in favor of an appropriation from the board to assist in carrying on this work in the county.

Supervisor MacBain explained that District Attorney Swart had advised the supervisors that according to law they had no authority to contribute money for child welfare work.

"If there is any way possible, however," said MacBain, "to raise money for this purpose, we will do it. We will know by the next meeting."

Mrs. Dana read a communication from the Social Service Commission relative to the Public Health Service established by the commission last year and supported by private subscription. The communication pointed out the splendid work done in the short time by the health service and then recomended that the supervisors provide for the maintainance of the service in the coming tax budget.

Mrs. Dana read a second cimmunication from the Social Service Commision in which it was recommended that all material relief for a Redwood City family, consisting of father and mother and twelve children, be withdrawn, as it had been found that the income from the father's and one son's wages amounted to $30 a week. The comunication stated that the home conditions of the family were deplorable and that the commission had a plan, which met with the approval of the juvenile court, the health officer of Redwood and the principal of the local grammar schol, to correct these conditions. A report of Dr. J. E. Chapin, the health officer, in the matter, was presented and read. The commission requested further in the communication that the board rescind its action on May 13, allowing the above family $25 a month in groceries.

After considerable discussion in the matter it was decided, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, that the request of the commission be granted and that the board's action in allowing the $25 a month relief be rescinded.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, it was ordered that the $6,000 donation voted by the board at a previous meeting to the Red Cross war fund, be paid out of the Liberty Bonds purchased by the county in the first issue.

Applications for dance permits were received from Attore Groce of Colma and Mrs. Zada Mansfield of Miramar and the hearings in the same were set for Monday, June 10.

P. M. Haley of Miramar, in behalf of Mrs. Mansfield, whose application for a dance permit had just been filed, appeared before the board and explained that the latter had a lease from Joe Miguel on a dancing pavilion at Miramar. A dispute had arisen between the two, Haley explained, over the terms of the lease and Miguel had filed a separate application for a permit to conduct dancing in the place. Haley asked that the board grant Mrs. Mansfield the permit, and not Miguel. He was assured that no permit would be granted until the matter was thoroughly looked into at the next meeting.

Lee T. Ross appeared before the board and asked the members to adopt a resolution he had prepared, directing County Treasurer P. P. Chamberlain to deliver the Liberty Bonds for the Red Cross contribution to himself (Ross) and A. D. Walsh, the chairman respectively of the San Mateo and Redwood City committees on the big drive. The request was granted and the resolution adopted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Francis.

A communication from the Supervisors of Butte county, enclosing copy of resolution for a special session of the legislature to consider the passage of necessary legislation for the protection and welfare of the people of the State and property during the existence of the war was received and ordered filed.

The board adjourned at 11:55 a. m., to Monday, June 3rd.

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

Clark in honor of and to celebrate the great and pleasing surprise of his nephew George Matraia in celebration of the young man's eighteenth birthday and his graduation from St. Mary's high school.

As it has been George's custom to spend a part of his vacation in San Carlos for many years, and owing to him many friends and acquaintances among the younger set of San Carlos, his father conceived the idea of preparing this treat and surprise to his only boy here in San Carlos rather than at his home in San Francisco because he believed it could be done more quietly here and with least risk of arousing the suspicions of the young gentleman, and thus the reason for the splendid success of his plan.

A greater part of the feast and delicacies were prepared in San Francisco and brought here by auto arriving just in time to be placed upon the banquet table and invite the young folks to take their fill.

The out of town guests were: The Misses Vivian Hayes, Gladys Vivian, Genevieve O'Brien, Ruby Hurlbut, Ruth Belden and Elizabeth Haley. Corporal Jake Bink, Private Clement Lubert, Mr. P. V. Matraia, Mr. and Mrs. Lagarmisino and son.

Those from San Carlos who attended were:

The Misses Muriel Clark, Mae Quinn, Marion Johnson, Mrs. Mary E. Quinn, Mrs. A. J. Johnson, Mrs. R. P. Hurlbut, Messrs. Frank Quinn and Lyle G. Clark.

The mammas who attended as chaperons entered into the spirit of the happy event with all the enthusiasm which sweet memories of bygone days, when hoop skirts were in fashion, lent to the occasion.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Redwood City as Seen Through Incidents Gathered Here and There

Mrs. E. Boyer of San Francisco is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. J. Kearse of this city.

If you have Watch trouble see watch doctor, George Peterson, 214 Main street, Sequoia Hotel Building.

Mrs. Howard Werner and her young son of San Francisco are here on a visit with Mrs. Werner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacKenzie.

Robert Murray, a student in the high school and young son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Murray, left yesterday for Camp Curry to spend a summer vacation.

George Kerr, formerly of Redwood Cit, has enlisted in the naval reserve and will leave for San Pedro next Monday. He left Redwood City only a few weeks ago.

Mr. Leist, the tailor, received word from France yesterday announcing the safe arrival of his son, W. H. Leist, at the front. He is with the California Engineers.

Joseph Simmons is here on a short furlough from San Pedro where he has been attached to the naval training station. He has been in the service three months and likes the life.

Diploma examinations for the eighth grade pupils of the county are being held in the several schools throughout the county by the county board of education. Superintendent of Schools, Roy W. Cloud, will hold examinations at Pescadero Monday and Tuesday of next week.

The many friends of Lieutenant Louis Britton in the county will be pleased to learn of his promotion to a captaincy. Mr. Britton has been stationed at Camp Kearny for the past six months. He received his commission as a captain on Monday. The captain is well-known in this locality.

The Lincoln school in Wellesley Park may well fell proud of the distinction it has gained through the efforts of the children attending it in the manner in which they purchased thrift stamps. The school has been awarded the war savings service banner offered by Jos. H. Naeh to the school in the district buying the greatest number of thrift stamps. The banner was presented to the school yesterday by Mr. Nash.

The Wednesday Evening dance of the Twenty-second which was conducted for the benefit of the local Red Cross Chapter, brought in the sum of $48.60, which sum was handed to the Chapter by the Wednesday Evening club. The local Red Cross Chapter has had many local expenses due to our proximity to Comp Fremont and the donation has been thankfully received. The club wishes to thank the public for its magnanimous support and cooperation.

There are about 1200 aliens at Camp Fremont to be naturalized and under the new law passed by Congress this may be done at the cantonments. Yesterday County Clerk Nash and F. Littleton, of the U. S. Attorney's office in San Francisco, were at the camp preparing a class to be naturalized today by Judge Buck. It will take a month to complete the work.

GRACE DARMOND, YOUTHFUL STAR, AT LIBERTY THEATRE

Grace Darmond is one of the brilliant screen artists signed late last year by Albert E. Smith, president of Vitigraph, to a long term contract to star in Blue Ribbon Features. She is one of the youngest stars in motion pictures today, of wondrous beauty, with sunlit hair, large brown eyes and a perfectly moulded face. She has been a featured player almost from the day she stepped into the Selig studio, in Chicago, three years ago.

GRACE DARMOND

Miss Darmond, prior to her advent into pictures, had had some experience in stock and her advance to a leading woman in the Selig studio was rapid. She left Selig to go with the Astra company, as serial star, then being chosen as star in the first Technicolor feature. Vitigraph next featured her as first support to Earle Williams in the five-reel feature, "In the Balance," where her extraordinary talent was at once manifest.

She is splendidly cast in "The Other Man," the Vitigraph Blue Ribbon Feature, which will be the attraction in the Liberty Theatre on Tuesday, June 4th. Harry Morey has the leading male role and with Miss Darmond is featured Florence Deshon, another of Vitigraph's newer stars. In the supporting cast are Frank Norcross, Jessie Stevens, Stanley Walpole, and Mrs. Chapin.

WOODSIDE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. St. John were visiting in Campbell this week.

Mrs. Fred Mighall is entertaining Miss B. MacDonald of San Francisco for a few days.

Mr. Jess Secker, who was visiting his parents has returned to Fort Bliss.

Mrs. A. Neisor received notice of her mother's death which occurred in Cherry township, Duchore, Pa. She was born in Pottsville, Pa., Aug. 11, 1825.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Orton returned during the week from Camp Lewis, Washington, after spending two weeks at the big cantonment and other places in that section. Their son John has been at the camp training for the past eight months and is expecting every day to leave for France. Mr. and Mrs. Orton met many of the San Mateo county boys at the camp. All were enjoying good health and well pleased with their work and treatment. They are all anxious to go across to the front. They are eager to swat the kaiser. This is Mr. and Mrs. Orton's second visit north since their son became a member of the camp.

The beautiful George S. Forderer home here was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. The origin of the blaze is unknown. A Japanese servant was in charge of the place and he cannot give any reason for the conflagration. The Forders are still occupying their city home and had not yet moved to Woodside for the summer. A Comte, the well-known San Francisco attorney formerly owned the place which he sold to its present owner some years ago for $30,000. Mr. Forderer is president of the Forderer Cornice Works at 269 Potrero avenue, San Francisco.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM SAN CARLOS

Happenings in Our Northern Neighbor Town Reported by One Its Residedts

It is seldom that our peace officer, the deputy sheriff, has occasion to use the strong arm of the law in this quiet peaceful locality, and it is only when outsiders come to town or are passing through that our laws are transgressed. This was the case when Domingo Toscano of Las Banos with his 52 Overland ran head on into the machine of W. L. Schmolle, the architect from Burlingame and then climbed out of his machine and began to pummel Mr. Schmolle because his believed him to be at fault. Deputy Cowgill placed Toscano under arrest and later called for Deputy Hogan to take charge of his prisoner and escort him to Judge Seely's court along with Mr. Schmolle, who swore out a complaint againsht him. Mr. Toscano's machine was towed to San Francisco by his cousin, who is deputy sheriff in Judge Brady's court in San Francisco.

As one of a series of picnics given by the Women's Club of Redwood City for the purpose of securing funds with which to pay for liberty bonds the one held at Mrs. Fred Lippmans's "Laurel Nook", San Carlos, proved to be a very successful as well as a very happy event. There was a large attendance from Redwood City and the affair was also liberally patronized by the members of San Carlos and their friends who went along as guests. Four generations were present to enjoy and partake of the delicious dutch lunch and the unique and interesting entertainment in which every one present had a part. This interesting group were Great Grandmother Turner, Grandma Mrs. Charlotte Chapman, Mamma, Mary Hunt and baby Dolley Gene Hunt

Mr. Thos. T. Wiseman, directo for San Mateo County in the drive for the sales of Thrift Stamps and War-Savings Certificates, and in the promotion of thrift and war-saving; societies, visited San Carlos last Friday in the interest of this great work to which he has lent so much of his time and effort. Mr. Wiseman left a supply of pledge and membership cards with the postmaster with the peremtory orders that as Uncle Sam's only official representative in town, that he proceed to get busy and secure the signature of every adult who was willing—voluntarily—to pledge themselves to support on of the most important movement in the prosecution of this great war and to do their small part towards helping to get the Kaiser and his blood thirsty following; if we do not do this voluntarily, then the time is coming says Mr. Wiseman, that our Government will be forced to draft us in the performance of our duty just as our boys are being drafted to laying the trenches and be gassed by the Kaiser. None of you, we are sure will have to be urged to sign these pledges, but just remind the postmaster when you call at the office that you want one of these cards. After a sufficient number of cards are signed Mr. Wiseman will come to San Carlos and organize our branch of the society. Heretofore we have been merged with Redwood City or San Mateo in Liberty Bonds, Red Cross and other drives, as has our sister village of Belmont on the north, but it is high time we put away our swaddling clothes and proceed to stand alone as a unit and thus have our identity known to the outside world.

A surveying party in charge of Hugh Donegan were here Wednesday staking out the lines on the fifty nine acre tract recently purchased by C. C. Morse Seed Company from the Brittan estate and which fronts on the state highway.

Mr. H. A. Davies of the Davies Auto Repair Company of Redwood City was in town on business for his company last Saturday, and while here bought a machine from Mrs. Mary E. Quinn.

Grover Mitchell has discarded his motorcycle and has now become one of our auto speed fiends.

Miss Gladys Vivian has resumed her studies at Heald's Business College after several days visit with Mrs. John V. Clark.

The James O'Brien family who have been occupying apartments at the Huributs for the past two months have become so favorably impressed with San Carlos that they have now leased the Winters residence on the corner of Cypress and Elm streets and will move their furniture from San Francisco about the first of June.

It is to be regretted that the date for the special election on the lighting district for San Carlos was not announced far enough in advance to permit those who had not already registered for the regular elections to place their names on the great register in time to be eligible to vote on this important proposition. The primary election was so far distant that many had not registered believing the regular elections to be the first on the list.

Mr. B. B. Brady, who entered the service of the Southern Pacific Company in 1865 and who was recently retired on pension after so many years of continuous service, was here to visit his old friend John V. Clark for the week-end. Mr. Clark and Brady worked together in the general offices of the S. P. Co., in 1875.

One of the most interesting events of the past week was the surprise party given at the home of John V.

MRS. WILLIAM CHAPPELL DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs William Chappell passed away in Santa Clara county on Sunday last after a long illness. She was interred at Pacific Grove on Tuesday. Her mortal remains were laid alongside of those of her son who died ten years ago. Mrs. Chappell was a native of England, aged 81 years. She came to this country when a young girl. She is survived by her husband, William Chappell. The golden jubilee of the couple occurred last year and the event was duly celebrated, many friends coming from far and near to pay their respects to the jubiliarians. Mrs. Chappell will live long in the memory of her many friends for her kindly manner, charming personality and the unselfish devotion to her friends and neighbors. She loved her friends and to assist them appeared to be her one object in life. The death of her son some years ago was a severe blow to her and from which she never fully recovered. She brooded over her loss and apparently was glad when the end came that she might be reunited with him in that other and better world beyond. For over forty years she was a resident of Menlo Park, coming here in the early eighties.

Frank Ginardi, a section laborer, who severely stabbed Jack Ford, a section boss here some time ago, was convicted of an assault with a deadly weapon in the superior court Monday. Yesterday he was given an indeterminate sentence at San Quentin. He may serve from one to fourteen years. This is left to the discretion of the prison board.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

Menlo Park has gone completely over the top in the Red Cross drive. Over $8,000 has been collected which is far in excess of the amount alloted for this place.

The Native Daughters of Mountain View and Menlo Park will give a social dance in Triumph hall this evening. This will probably be the last dance to take place in the old building for it is soon to be converted into a garage.

Miss Isabella Fox, the pretty young and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Fox of this place, was united in marriage on Thursday to George A. Schmid, a soldier at Camp Fremont who soon expects a commission. The young bride is one of the prettiest young girls in Menlo Park.

Sergeant O'Neill left during the week for the front in France. He has been at Camp Fremont since last October and during that time made many friends in town and became popular with all. The genial sergeant has a happy faculty of making friends and holding them. His departure has caused much regret among the townspeople.

Many from Menlo Park on Thursday attended the unveiling of the monument erected by the firemen of San Francisco in Holy Cross cemetery to their chief S. D. Russel who was killed in the line of duty last year. The monument is exactly like the one erected by the French government for the American soldiers who died in this war at the front.

The Menlo Park War Savings Society was organized in the postoffice building on Thursday evening. Lee T. Ross and Thomas Wiseman of San Mateo were present and helped to organize the society. Mrs. Frank Derry was chosen president and Mrs. E. J. Crane secretary Members of the organization pledge themselves to assist the government whenever it becomes necessary. Many pledges have already been made.

Mrs. Kane and her little daughter, Sylvia, departed last Saturday for their home in Tacoma, Washington, after spending a pleasant month in Menlo Park with Dr. Kane, a lieutenant in the medical corps at Camp Fremont. The doctor was a prominent physician at Tacoma when he joined the army. This was the first time his wife and little daughter visited the peninsula and they were delighted with its beauties.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Donohoe and the Misses Donohoe entertained the entire company of the Paulist Choristers, about ninety in all, at a luncheon party at their home in Menlo Park Monday. On account of the sunny weather luncheon was served out of doors on the lawn The green is splashed with gay flower colors, the hawthorn hedges and trees, the roses, wistaria and other shrubbery creating a pleasing effect. The tables were adorned with quantities of flowers.

DEDICATION OF SERVICE FLAG CEREMONIOUSLY OBSERVED

With beautiful and impressive ceremony the roll of honor or service flag of the Church of the Nativity was dedicated on Thursday morning at the vestibule of the church before a large congregation. Father Hannigan recited the prayers dedicating the flag or banner to God and prayed that those whose names are inscribed thereon would return safely from the battlefields. After the dedication a large American flag was unfurled to the breezes from the upper window of the church.

During this ceremony the 62nd Infantry band which took a position just to the right of the entrance to the edifice played a number of national airs. After the flag raising Father Moisant, a chaplain at Camp Fremont, appeared on a temporary platform erected at the front entrance to the church and delivered a soul-stirring patriotic and eloquent address, telling in well phrased words the supreme sacrifices the soldier boys were making for the country. He paid a high tribute to the mothers wives and sweethearts for the sacrifice, they too, were making in being separated from their loved ones, but who were willing that they should go forth to battle for justice' sake. "Bless our Banner and we will carry it on to Victory" eloquently spoke the priest adding that the banner would be surely carried to victory in this terrible conflict.

Preceding the dedication a solemn high mass was celebrated for the repose of the souls of the soldiers who died in the present war. Father Kennedy was the celebrant, Father Moisant, deacon and Father Ryan, subdeacon. A special choir in charge of Father Hannigan sang the mass.

The beautiful embroidered banner contains the names of 55 members of the Church of the Nativity who went to war. The following are the names:

Alexander Beltramo, Phillip Blanchard, James Burke, Redmond Cochrane, John Cullen, Charles M. Davis, Vincent Dantoni, Frank Derry, Donald J. Derry, Joseph A. Donohoe, James Leo Duff, John Enos, Atherton Eyre, Edward L. Eyre, David Tuttle, Paul Draycott, William Feely, Edward Fromhertz, Arthur A. Gale, Walter J. Gale, Demetric Harkins, Henry Harkins, Joseph Kelly, Barnard Larrecou, Pierre Larrecou, Arthur Midgley, Joseph Murray, Leslie Murray, Manuel M. Silveira, Barney O'Donnell, Michael O'Donnell, John O'Dea, Mervyn Rapley, Arthur Payne, James Powers, David Roche, John Roach, Vincent Sexton, Thomas Sexton, Ralph Smith, George Walsh, Henry Walsh, Andrew Walsh, Edwin Walsh, Artillio Mondo, Arnesto Qualglia, John Basarini, Tom Rose, Manuel Nunes, John Costa, Antonio Costa, Antonio Chiappelloni, Richard Chiappelloni, John Cunningham, Emilio Mangini, Jacob Mangini, Manuel O'Lial.

James Hosborough, the well-known railroad official, has taken the Gregory place in the Coleman tract for the summer.

Mrs. Annie Small is here as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James D. O'Kane. She has a large estate in Scotland and hopes to be able to return to her native land this summer. Mrs. Small has crossed the Atlantic ocean seven times and during the last trip she was in constant dread of sub-marines.

Senator Hamden, the old time negro minstrel, was in town on Thursday calling on friends. He got on the train at Belmont and sat beside a gentleman who became incensed that a negro should sit with him and expressed himself accordingly Hamden is an educated man, a student of Shakespeare and an orator and the way he flayed the "gentleman" with Shakespearian sentences caused the whole car to laugh and titter. It is needless to say the man got off at the next station.
